"Beautiful Days Gone By"

Henry

Lyric by WILLIAM LE BARON

Music by ROBERT HOOD BOWERS

Garden Of Peaches

Moderato Semplice

When you and I were twenty-one, do you remember

Gavotte Grazioso

how we didn't play the game of love way they seem to now? we never had a motor car in which to run away. We just got married in a church, and then we walked away. And when the wedding feast was done, we did not visit Washington!

Beautiful days gone by; no matter how we try,

No time can ever be so sweet for you and me;

Years such as we had then never will come again; And
