"I'd Rather be a Peach on Broadway"
Madge and Girls

Lyric by WILLIAM LE BARON

Music by ROBERT HOOD BOWERS

Tempo di Marcia

1. There are girls who like the charm of a girls who like the charm of a life up on a farm, where that "close to nature" country peach is green, she would not know what you mean, if you asked her if she'd

2. Now the stuff is in their reach;
stuff is in their reach;
And it seems to be their dream, for it

...have a cigarette;
If she ever got it lit, all the

...makes them simply beam when they
...rubes would have a fit; it would be a thing they never would for-
They can watch the chickens browse, and they get.

When a party really starts, someone often milk the cows; and they start their day at quarter after three; if they go to bed at eight, they are half an hour late; Well, that's not the kind of peach I want to be!

orders apple tarts; and sweet cider is the only drink they know; and that's why you can depend, where the city limits end. That's as far as I would ever want to go.

I'd rather be one, 4
REFRAIN

rather be a peach on Broadway, than half a dozen

(Sharp basso)

peaches on a tree; I like to have to dodge the (Spoken)

"Look out!"

taxicabs; Nix on the rural life for me; I hate to see the sun a - shin-ing; I hate to smell the "pum-kins" and the hay;

But I'm right at home at night, un-derneath the blaze of light that is shin-ing down on old Broadway.

I'd rather be etc.