As I went a-roaming

Words by HELEN TAYLOR

Music by MAY H. BRAHE

Allegro vivace

Voice

Very brightly

As I went a-roaming one morning in poco rall.

springtime, As I went a-roaming in the sweet of the year,
-low in the green-wood a young lad did meet me, Who greeted me
(I met a young maiden, And) (her) colla voce

*a tempo
Very gaily

rall.

kind-ly, and called me his dear, Der-ry der-ry down der-ry oh!
(her my)

rall.
a tempo

Der-ry der-ry down der-ry oh! Der-ry down der-ry oh! called me his dear.
(her my)

rall.

a tempo

As I went a-roaming
He said, "You shall walk in a gown made of sail.
Sat. in, A ring on your finger, a rose at your ear,
And you shall ride forth in a coach with six horses And I'll love you truly, if you'll be my dear.
Derry derry down derry oh!"

Ab
As I went a-roaming - 5
Derry derry down derry oh! Derry down derry if you'll be my dear. Then he gave me a kiss, and I could not restrain him. His words were so sweet and so pleasing to her. And so I will wed him without more delay. Since he is my true love and

A little slower

I (her) answered consenting, in poco rall. a tempo rall. Brightly

poco rall. a tempo rall. Brightly

wed him without more delaying, Since he is my true love and

As I went a-roaming
Tempo I
Very brightly

I am his dear. Der-ry der-ry down der-ry oh!
(she is my)

Der-ry der-ry down der-ry oh! Der-ry down der-ry oh! I am his dear, oh! Der-ry der-ry down der-ry oh! Der-ry der-ry down poco rall. un poco accel.

der-ry oh! Der-ry down der-ry oh! I am his dear.
(she is my)

Ab
As I went a roaming - 5