AT LAST UNITED

SONG

Lyric by
EDWARD A. PAULTON
& ADOLF PHILIPP

Words by
JEAN BRIQUET
& ADOLF PHILIPP

Andante moderato

VOICE

A handsome prince, a fair princess, Long years ago loved far too
This treatment vile, their love increased, Resistance has that strange ef-

well For fate their love was not to bless A fect, They wondered when they'd be released And

Copyright MCMXV by JEROME H. REMICK & CO., New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada, MCMXV by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
Performing rights reserved tale not hard to parallel. Their royal sires were use less tears they bravely checked. They gazed upon the deadly foes Whose attitude one may sup-cruel tide And by and by one parent pose. The two they departed broken hearted and each bedied And, being sickly, the other quickly passed out one stowed in grim abode. night, which served him right! Between them flowed a

At Last United 3
mighty stream, 'Cross which she heard as in a dream:
things were well
Heard faintly in her prison cell:

REFRAIN

Tho' river wide May us divide, Love shall build us a bridge of hope divine O'er which indeed My soul shall speed At last uniting itself with thine.