I Don't Know Her Name Yet

Words by
C.M.S. McLELLAN

Music by
HERMAN FINCK

Now tattooed girls don't interest me as a regular daily feature, And pictures done in India ink can't add to a lovely creature. But here's a girl with a shy tattoo who says, come along and find it. A game; like that, well you can't quite say, There might be a lot behind it. So I, like a sort is bound to do, am after the girl with a shy tattoo.

I don't know her name yet, the details are few, I don't know the colour of her hair, I don't know her relatives, or where I'm most apt to

I Don't Know etc.
find her. My one only clue is the fact that the girl is a lark of a girl, Sort of lead you a dance in the dark little girl, Keep you running all night through the park little girl, And is marked with a shy tattoo. I too. Is the fact that the girl is a lark little girl, Sort of

I Don't Know etc –
lead you a dance in the dark little girl, keep you running all night through the park, running all night through the park, she's marked with, she's marked with a shy tattoo, tattoo.

I Don't Know etc &