I PREFER THE CAT

Lyric by EDWARD A. PAULTON and ADOLF PHILIPP

Music by JEAN BRIQUET and ADOLF PHILIPP

Song

Moderato

VOICE

(P) You (He)

PHOTO

(P) This

don't respond, I must confess, With any warmth to beast, as of the feline tribe, It's proved that one must my caress; You make my heart go pit-a-pat And stop to bribe; If his affection you'd retain A

Copyright MCMXV by JEROME H. REMICK & CO. New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada, MCMXV by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

Performing rights reserved
then proceed to strike the cat. (She) I love, indeed, to dog is easier to train. (She) Your accusation hear him purr. Besides he has such silky fur. And is not true, so scratch him pussy darling do! (He) Of some-how, as it's plain to see, he seems quite fond of love for him I've not a spec, I'd like to wring his me When a girl wants a pet for herself, She should neck! (He) When a girl wants a pet for herself, She should

I Prefer etc. 4
get a canary or a dog —
get first a husband, once her beau —
And in time — a, well, you

Tom. Keep away, if you can, From the men, For a know. I am strong with the rest From the pet, you sug-

man. Is the worst when he's nice, That's my grandma's advice.
gest, I should dote on the plan, Were it not for the man.

—CHORUS

(He) Love's too good for one to waste, As you do now, Up on a thing Whose only voice can be expressed In this way, Miaw! Hold me, dear, in tender close embrace, like that And you'll find that you pre - fer—(She) I do prefer! (He) Me? (She) No, the cat! __ D.C.

I Prefer etc. 4