The Magic Melody.

Words by SCHUYLER GREENE.

Music by JEROME KERN.

Something mighty sweet about it

Voice. What's the name of that melody?

Piano. Something hard to beat about it

Oh What's the name of that melody?

What a pity not to know the name of such a pretty ditty

It always seems to interrupt you when you're talking.
It seems to lift you from your feet and start you walking,

When those cellos and fiddles start in to fiddle that middle part

Clouds, fears, sighs, tears, disappear as if by Magic. The Chorus.

world goes a-round to the sound of a Syncopated melody,

Come on take a chance and we'll dance to the Syncopated melody,

Beware have a care, have a care, when you're doin' it Keep moving or you'll ruin it and just so you'll know we'll show you all the late improvements in those syncopated movements. Oh you start kind of slow till you dim.

know how to throw your shoulders in the air.

Then you slide and you glide 'round the room in an attitude of "I don't care!"

You'll dance and you'll sway and you'll think and you'll talk to it. You'll work and you'll play, and you'll drink and you'll walk to it. You can't get away from that Magic Melody.
