Last night while I was a-

Just like a rose in De-sleeping,

ember,

I heard a raggedy tune,

Brings back the summer to you,

In to my brain it kept creeping,
Some little song you remember,
Brings back some body you knew soon,
Then I heard some body singing,
Sometimes you catch yourself humming,
Rock-a-bye baby's refrain,
Times that were once near and dear,
Like my mother did,
Memories will clinging,
When I was a kid,
Every note you sing,
Then I fell asleep again,
Brings along a little tear.

Put Me To Sleep etc. 3
CHORUS (Smoothly.)

Put me to sleep with an old fashioned melody when the lights are burning low.

Sing to me—Harmony—that will bring me back to mother's knee.

Sue, dear, I remember you. You're a song of long ago. Oh, Put me to sleep with an old fashioned melody. And wake me up with a rag. rag.
