Some Sort Of Somebody.
(All of the Time.)

Words by ELSIE JANIS.

Music by JEROME KERN.

(She) Have you ever really tried to concentrate?
(He) I have travelled all around this world of ours.

(She) I don't know the meaning of the word;
(He) Then
(She) I don't doubt that you've been going some.
(He) And

When you think you love a girl you hesitate?
I have sipped the honey from the rarest flow'rs!

Not too long, for that would be absurd!

You have sent the flowers and sipped the rum!

I know that when I'm ninety, with a long grey beard,
every foreign country I have met my fate.

I'll still be making up my mind.

Procrastination is a habit.

I've met her so much, I am tired!

REFRAIN. Slowly in strict time.

(She) 1. Some of the time you think you love a brunette.

(He) 2. Some of the time I loved a girl from Berlin.

(She) 1. I know the kind who had a Spanish mother!
(He) 2. Sie war so schön und lustig und so weiter!

Some of the time you love a kind who had a Spanish mother!
Some of the time she came from Spain.
