That Melodious Melody

Lyric by
JOSEPH NOEL

Music by
JOSEPH E. HOWARD
& HERBERT P. STOTHART

Allegro moderato

When ever you are lone-ly sad, or blue, dad, My If mu-sic is the food of love, I crave it, My ev-ry-bod-ys gone a-way from you, dad, Don't you weep no more, dear love can find no oth-er kind to save it. Just a mel-o-dy that's dad-dy, Sun-ny skies will soon re-turn sim-ple with a sweet and plain-tive air.

you will only start the music playing, Some simple tender melody of old. Old songs, like good old wine, dear, Have fondly tucked us in our little bed. It's not a raggy fox trot; It's stood the test of time, dear; So listen to a good old tune, dad!

not a jargy what-not, It's just a lov-in' melody, dad!

REFRAIN

That melodious melody, That melodious melody, M.W. & Sons 1910 6 dy It keeps a-sing-ing in my ear, That syncopated tune so dear It's the sing-a-ble swing-y kind, Not the sting-a-ble string-y kind. "Weep no more my la-d-y" Play that mellow, mellow, mel-o-dy. That mel-o-dy.
