That Soothing Symphony

Words by
WILL J. HARRIS

Music by
TED SNYDER

Moderato

Voice

In a quaint old fash-ioned home,
Time has changed this hum-ble scene,

As hum-ble as could be,
A pair now old and gray

A boy play'd soul-ful-ly
They hear their grand-child play

A girl whose heart was nev-er filled with love,
It brings them back a-gain to love's young days,

Copyright 1915 by Waterson Berlin & Snyder Co.
International Copyright Secured
Just listened to that melody.
When they were bashful girl and boy.

And while a tear-drop went a stray,
She whispered pleadingly:

melody

Just seemed to cry with joy.

Chorus

Play that soothing symphony. It's like an angel's melody

Just hear it moaning plaintively. Come to me, I want you.
That music won my heart, It made my feelings start.

Dearie, make me cheerie; Oh, that music draws you near me. Let me rest right in your arms, That melody has magic charms. I love that soothing symphony.