'Twas Always Mary

Moderato

Last night in my dreams I wandered it seems To days of long ago The Long years have rolled by since Mary and I First strolled through lover's lane The Tangled wood lane I saw again And scenes that I once used to know The Schoolyard we knew has passed from view, The wild woods no longer remain My Copyright MCMLXV by O. E. Story, Music Publisher, 248 Tremont St. Boston, Mass.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMLXV by O. E. Story at the Department of Agriculture
All rights for Mechanical instruments reserved

International Copyright Secured schoo-yard where first I met Ma-ry In a plain gingham gown of blue Brought Ma-ry and I like the wild-wood Have been changed by the hand of time Her back home to me, A sweet mem-o-ry For she was the one love I knew.

eyes not as blue, Her heart's just as true And Ma-ry is still Ma-ry mine.

CHORUS
Slowly

'Twas Ma-ry that I played with in my child-hood, At school we shared the same old wood-en stool, 'Twas

'Twas always Mary. 3
with her that I rambled in the wild wood. 'Twas she who taught me first the golden rule; God bless her, the sun shine of our home we've called her Mary.

for the sake of days of "Auld Lang Syne" 'Twas Mary then, it's Mary now, Yes Mary ever more, 'Twas always Mary, Mary mine. 'Twas mine.

Twas always Mary.