What A Wonderful Mother You'd Be

Words by JOE GOODWIN

Music by AL. PIANTADOSI

Moderato

I saw you playing with a child, You looked so sweet to me, It seemed as though that's all you ought to do,

The smile you smile was only meant To cheer the whole world through, The arms you have are just meant to caress, kissed it and caressed it, and The whole world seemed to be A seem to do the little things That mothers always do,

Par-a-dise for just that child and you,
mission in this life was just to bless,

were so loving, sweetheart,
like to sit and look at you,

couldn't help but frame this little picture in my mind:
like to picture you as just a sweet sweetheart of mine:

Mother, dear, Now the picture just seems so complete, With the baby right there on your knee, You're my sweetheart, that's true, But when I look at you What a wonderful mother you'd be, I can be.
