What'll You Do?

Words by
SAM. M. LEWIS
and ED. ROSE

Music by
GEO. W. MEYER

Moderato

It's ver-y plain to see
You made a fool of me;
Some day, you
Can you re-call the past?
It was too good to last,
Some time, that

may re-gret it,
You'd love to say "good bye!"
Without a tear or sigh,
thought will grieve you.
You looked in-to my eyes,
You told a hun-dred lies,

Copyright MCMXV by Broadway Music Corporation 145 W 45th St New York
All Rights Reserved International Copyright Secured
The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically
All right, then let us forget it. You don't think you'll miss me when I'm far away.
My heart just made me believe you. You can laugh today but in the bye and bye.
far away. Wait till you're lonely some day.
bye and bye. You'll be the one that will sigh.

CHORUS

What'll you do when someone gets the kiss belonging to you.

What'll you do? What'll you do when you begin to miss the love you once knew, what'll you do? Every time you close your eyes you'll see Someone else a-making love to me. There will come a time when you'll be sad and blue, When some-body wants me, then you'll want me too!

Just think it over, what'll you do?

What'll You Do? 3