You Remind Me So Much Of My Mother
THAT YOU STOLE MY HEART AWAY

Words by AL. DUBIN
Music by GEORGE B. McCONNELL

Valse Lento

It's been but a week since I met you, I've I've tried many times to explain it, I'm known you for ever it seems, I know that I'll never for-trying and wondering too, Just what makes me think of my get you, I'll see you in all of my dreams, I mother, Each time that my eyes rest on you,

Copyright 1915 by Emmett J. Welch, Phila., Pa.
You knew you when you were a baby, You don't understand.
You knew just how much I loved her, Then you surely stand just how.

I see in your eyes there's a question, I'm going to answer it now.
Just why I've been trying to win you, Like daddy won mother and me.

CHORUS

You remind me so much of my mother, In each little thing you
My dad called her Mame, And your name is the same.
And your eyes are just as blue,
Wont you love me the way she would love me, If she were here today?
You remind me so much of my mother,
That you stole my heart away.
You're way.

You Remind Me, dec. 9