If I Knock the "L" out of Kelly
(It Would Still be Kelly to me)

Words by

JOE YOUNG

Tempo di Valse moderato

Music by
BERT GRANT

Tim-o-thy Kelly, who owned a big store,

Till ready

logato

Wanted his name painted over the door,

He told Pat Clancy "that's no name of mine,

One day Pat Clancy, the never go far,

You're a fine painter, like Kelly you are;

painted man came; tried to be fancy and mis-spelled the name;

In stead of

You've spoiled the name of an Irish-man's son!

Pat said, "It looks right, but I want no pay, I've reasoned it out in my own little way."

"Don't let an "L" come between us," said Pat, "I've figured it out like a real diplomat."

CHORUS

If I knock the "L" out of Kelly, It would still be Kelly to me;

Sure a single "L-Y" or a double "L-Y" Should look just the same to an Irishman's eye.

Knock off an "L" from Killarney, Still Killarney it always will be, But if I knock the

"L" out of Kelly, Sure he'd knock the "L" out of me. If I me.

If I Knock the "L" out of Kelly -
