The Moonlight Waltz

SONG

Poem by

VIRGINIA KNIGHT LOGAN

Music by

FREDERIC KNIGHT LOGAN
Composer of Missouri Waltz

Intro.

tremolo

Accent thumb notes throughout for melody

Use soft & loud pedal together

In the month of June Neath the silvery moon,
We will glide

a way——Thro' the maiz-y dance, While our hearts enthrance,
All the hours so gay;

To the magic strain
Of that sweet refrain,

Copyright, MCMXVI by F.J.A. Forster, Music Publisher, Chicago
As it floats o-long, While the stars a-bove Whis-per words of love, Thro' the Moon light Waltz.  Then

With decision  dance on, Ah! so light-ly To that fair Land of Dreams far a-way

Where moon-beams, glanc-ing bright-ly Chase the shad-ows of sor-row away Then come love, Dance with me, love, To the mus-i-c that to that fair Land of Dreams far away.

Ah! come—

The Moonlight Waltz 4 Ahh! 'tis such pleasure when dancing each measure of Moonlight Waltz In the month of June, Neath the silvery moon, We will glide away Thro' the maizey dance, While our hearts en-trance All the hours so gay; To the magico strain Of that sweet re-frain, As it floats along While the stars above, Whisper words of love, Thro' the Moonlight Waltz.