There's a bathing beach that's open all year round,
Lots of cred—it's due to any one who braves Where the very Swimming against those best of swimmers can be found, matrimonial tidal waves,

Where life savers most are need-ed,
There are widows, maids and ma-trons, help is heed-ed, Ev’ry-bod-y hol-lers "Let ’em drown!"
season’s pa-trons, An-y-thing the plea-sure seek-er craves, It's a case of sink or swim, Hearts are sinking deep within, And all the waves are roaring "Going down!"

It's a case of sink or swim, Once that you have ventured in, For that's where single men get closest shaves.

CHORUS

Oh! your chances are slim, When you go for a swim, In the stormy sea of Love, There's a strong undertow, And the first thing you know

"Down goes McGinty to the bottom of the sea," So you'd better beware,

Of the heart breakers there, Always keep your head a love,

For "Many brave hearts lie asleep in the deep, In the stormy sea of Love. Oh! your Love.
