Won't You Come Along With Me?

Words by JAMES BROCKMAN.
Moderato.

Music by TED S. BARRON.

They met while strolling in the park one day,
They strolled along together,
With smiles and greetings in the arm in arm,
Their loving hearts kept beating

same old way,
lke a charm,
He said "I'm awfully glad to
They both sat down as happy

meet you here._  Listen, dear_,  I'm sincere._
as could be._  Neath a tree_,  he and she,_

Some-body wants you, wants you by his side._
"Tell me your secret," she said, "Tell me do!"

The world seems sad when you're away._
"Some-body loves you" he would say.

There's no use in trying, true love you can't hide._
When I take you home, my dear, you'll find out who.

A charming imitation of Church Chimes. Ask the Orchestra or Pianist to play it and YOU'LL BUY IT.
Accept no imitation or substitute.
Come dear, love will find the way.
I will tell you on the way.

Refrain.

Won't you come along with me,
Won't you come along with me,
I've got something dear, to tell you that might interest you too
It's a little secret you should
