ASK HER IN SPRINGTIME

SONG

Lyric by
GEO. J. MORIARTY

Music by
RICHARD A. WHITING
and GRACE LE BOY

Andante moderato

PIANO

VOICE

Cupid is casting his magic spell over the land and the sea

Sun-beams are sending caresses rare Blossoms receive them below

Spring-time the artist is painting the dell, A bower for you dear and me

Soon they'll be wedded in meadowlands fair Daily their love seems to grow

Lives there a fellow who doubts dreams of bliss When winds so low are whispering this

Spring-time comes thrilling each soul with desire Tell her you're willing to kindle love's fire

Copyright MCMXVII by JEROME H. REMICK & Co. New York & Detroit

Copyright, Canada, MCMXVII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

Performing rights reserved
REFRAIN
Moderato

Ask her in Spring-time when the fragrant blossoms start

Something comes stealing just revealing love within her heart

Song-birds will help you while you whisper they will sing There's no way to lose She can't refuse Just ask her in Spring Spring

D.C.