The Battle Song of Liberty

Words by
JACK YELLEN

Tempo di Marcia

Piano

It's the roar and rattle of Freedom's battle That's calling us over the sea,
Where a mighty foe has challenged us, boys.
It's up to you and to me; So get Old Glory, we'll make 'em sorry That they ever dreamed of this fight... We're on our way with a Hip! Hoo-ray! Just to do what we know to be right.

COLUMBIA'S CALL is a new March that is equal in every respect to our world-famous "National Emblem." Very "showy" yet easy to play. The Trio strain is the most wonderful "singing" melody ever written. Two thousand (2,000) copies were sold over one music counter in two weeks. If "Columbia's Call" is not obtainable from your local dealer send 10 cents in stamps direct to the publisher, Walter Jacobs, 8 Bosworth Street, Boston, Mass.
REFRAIN

So here's to Uncle Sammy faith ful and true,
Here's to our banner of red, white and blue;
And here's to all good fel lows on land and sea,
Singing the Battle Song of Liberty.
