THE BOMBO-SHAY

SONG

HENRY CREAMER
HENRY LEWIS &
TURNER LAYTON

Moderato

PIANO

VOICE

Folks in New York
Dear old New York

Vamp

mf pizzicato

Go simply wild about something new
Not only stood for that hula craze They'll rave a
But learnt ten

Copyright MCMXVII by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada, MCMXVII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
Performing rights reserved month or two thou-sand ways
a-bout a no-vel-ty that's strange
to walk that pup-py-dog and prance.

Folks in New York
just can-not do with-out dances new
Dear old New York
is awf-ly good for that so it pays

Here's one I'll show to you just for a change
So let the peo-ple gaze
on this new dance

The Bombo-shay - 4
CHORUS

In-crease your stride just a lit-tle, you slide just a lit-tle, then glide just a lit-tle, then turn all a-round. You move your hip just a lit-tle, you skip just a lit-tle, then dip just a lit-tle but not to the ground. And then you clap your hands in hula style.  And do that hula sway.

And then you stop just a little you drop just a little you hop just a little that's the Bombo-shay.  Increase your

The Bombo-shay - 4