The Dixie Volunteers

By EDGAR LESLIE and HARRY RUBY

VOICE

Moderato

till ready

See the

They are folks all arrayed?

They're dressed up, for the parade;
The Dixie

all full of "pep."
Just see those boys keep in step;

Behind their

boys are on their way, They're going to sail this very day,

You can

regimental band,
They're playing tunes from Dixieland,

See the

tell at a glance,
They're anxious to get to France;

And you can

smile on each face?
They'll give that Kaiser a chase;

They'll hand the

bet they'll do their share, when they get "over there."

Let's all give three cheers, For the Dix-ie Vol-un-teers, See those great big South-ern lad-dies, Just like their dear old dad-dies, They are proud to go, And they want the world to know, They're com-ing! they're com-ing! From the land of Old Black Joe, Peace-ful sons have shoul-dered guns, And now they're go-ing to be, Fight-ing men like Stone-wall Jack-son and like Robert E. Lee; When they hit that line; And they cross the Riv-er Rhine; You'll wish you came from Dix-ie, With the Dix-ie Vol-un-teers.
