I'll Take You Back To Italy
(Duet: TONY and MARIE)

By IRVING BERLIN

Moderato

VOICE TONY

I lik-a you, Mar- ie,
We'll have a lit-tle wop,

TILL READY

MARI E

I lik-a you, To- ny;
Some-one to call you "pop;"

TONY

We gon-na mak-a He'll look-a like his marriage soon,

Gee! but he'll be a home-ly kid;

MARIE

Copyright MCMXVII by IRVING BERLIN STANDARD MUSIC Corp., 1607 Broadway, N.Y.C.
International Copyright Secured.
Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved.
After I marry you,  What are you gonna do?
We'll call a him Tony,  Maybe he'll be a she!

CHORUS

I'll take you back with me,  Back to sunny

a tempo

T O N Y

It a ly,  That's where I would like to be,
make the organ grind, I leave the org' behind; I'll cook spaghetti, That's very good, Eddie, The nice Italian kind, We'll raise a da family, They will look like you and me,

How many we have Marie? One, two or

The money in this country, Is not so three; (Plenty enough for us.) What will we do with the monk, they'll never free; (As it's supposed to be,) We'll say the barber shop business it let him pass? We'll give the monk to Missus never pays, Every one here they use the

TONY

Both

Ver-non safety Gas, And sail back to sunny Italy raz; So we came to sunny Italy.

1. I'll take you 2. I'll take you