I'm Going To Find A Girl.
Trio.

Lyric by P.G. WODEHOUSE.

Music by JEROME KERN.

Allegro moderato.

(OLLIE)

I

The

want the sort of wife Wholl lead a calm, do-girl I have in mind
I know it will be domest ic life. For me that kind of dame, hard to find And none that I can see

Has

T.B.H.Co. 14-4

Copyright MCMXVII by T.B. Harris, Co.
All Rights Reserved. International Copyright Secured. be a lot too tame. I want to find a girl Whöll zip enough for me. I'm pretty hard to suit She help me buck the social whirl. While I prefer the must have style and be a beaut. We'll track her down in sort, Who's fond of outdoor sport. Our tastes, you see, do time, Then oh! that wedding chime. Though cruel Fate may not agree, But one thing you can take from me That-make us wait! We're sure to find her soon or late. Yes, Burden or Refrain.

(All.)

I am going to find a girl some day.

If I have to hunt till I am gray.

Yes, if you stick a-round a while, walking down the aisle With the lit-tle mis-sus. She may be a

T.B.H. Co. 14-4
blonde or a brunette:
I've not settled

all the details yet
This is all I

(BUB.)
(OLLIE.)
(AIL.)

want to say. Some fine day Come what may, I am going to find a girl you bet.

1
2

T.B.H.Co. 14-4