The Jack O'Lantern Man

Lyric by EDWARD MADDEN

Music by LOUIS SILVERS

Moderato

PIANO

VOICE

Dark! Dark! Are the shadow of the night Fly! Fly! Where the lights are bright and gay

Mark! Mark! Not a star is shining bright Try! Try! Ev'ry case on your way

Spy! Spy! Reisen-

cry with all our might

Copyright MCMXVII by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit

Copyright, Canada, MCMXVII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

Performing rights reserved.
Wake! Wake! To the dawning of the day
There where many merry maidens sing Break! Break! From your Stare! Stare! At each gloomy dreams away
pretty little thing Share! Share! Both your pedals on Broadway Where the life is wild and glorious pleasures of a King Making life a short and merry one

CHORUS
When the Jack O'Lantern Man comes creeping Through the streets where folks are sleeping Dreaming dreams that bring uncanny screams

When the golden dawn comes slyly peeping

Till the town with life is leaping That's the time they tie a can To the Jack O'Lantern Man When the Man D.S.

The Jack O' Lantern Man 3