Day-time and night I would cheer-ful-ly toil.
All 'round my gar-den, in rap-ture, I'd roam.

I'd kill the blight and en-cour-age the soil.
I'd stay all day there and nev-er go home. And when at last, I had cleared it of weeds.

I'd go and buy me a package of seeds.

Prim-rose and seeds.
