golden rule ran thus: "We hope this does to others, What we dont want done to us."

Gilding again o'er the mill-pond, We skate with our hearts a-glow; Or down the country hill-side, We coast o'er ri-ven snow; An old fashioned sleighride par-ty, With

Sleigh bells gaily jingle, And Christmas time is here;

Christmas trees are gleaming, midst scenes of pleasure gay;

Peace on earth, Good will to men, Comes with the Yuletide cheer,

Happiness shall reign supreme, On this glad festival day;

Smiling eyes and faces Reflect the happy times, As

Sugar plums and candies, With story books and rhymes, Take us on the air comes pealing, The glad song of Christmas chimes.

back again to childhood, With the peal of Christmas chimes.

REFRAIN

Ring out your wondrous story, Sweet bells, ring your merry lay; A carol to the coming, Of our new born King today,

Ring out your tale of gladness, Peal forth in all worldly chimes, Your wondrous song of glory, Ring again sweet Christmas chimes. D.S.

FINALE

Ding-dong, Ding-dong, Ding-dong, Ding-dong, That is the song of Christmas Chimes.
