That's A Mother's Liberty Loan

By MAYO & TALLY & CLARENCE GASKILL

Brightly (Not fast)

There's a lonely little Every night this lonely mo- ther in a lone- ly home to-night, She's think- ing of her sol- dier boy Who mo- ther, has a dream that makes her sad, She seems to see her sol- dier boy When marched a-way to fight. Though she's only one in mil- lions, And she has no gold to be was but a lad. He is play- ing with his sol- dier toys, They're scattered o'er the spare. Her tear-dimmed eyes just seem to say, "I think I've done my share!" floor, She nev- er thought that some day he, Would hear the call of war.

I gave my boy to Uncle Sam, To fight for you and me,

Just like his dad at Gettysburg, In Eighteen-Sixty-

Three, If life must pay for Liberty, I'm giving all I own;

And when the battle's won, I'll then take back my Son, That's a Mother's Liberty Loan! I Loan!
