When The Flag of Peace Is Waving I'll Return.

Words by MARY RUTH MEYER.

Music by BARNIE G. YOUNG.

In a crowd ed rail-way sta-tion a maid - en stood in tears, By her side her sol-dier lov'er vain-ly tried to calm her tears, All a - board the Train was mov-ing, 'twas the sig - nal they must part, Then I

1. The flag of peace was wav-ing No joy to her it bore For the one for whom she's yearning will re-

2. turned to her no more, In her mind there lives a pic - ture, as he said his last good bye, On her

CHORUS. Slow March Time.

heard him soft-ly whis-per, to the girl who'd won his heart, heart his grav-en im - age, she now murmurs with a sigh, When the flag of

Copyright 1917, By Mary Ruth Meyer.
When The Flag Of Peace Is Waving, I'll Return.

Peace is waving and victory we've won, Let the love flame

In your heart more brightly burn, For I love you sweetly.

Heart only, So remember when you're lonely, When the flag of peace is waving.

I'll return.