When Those Sweet Hawaiian Babies Roll Their Eyes.

Words by EDGAR LESLIE.

Music by HARRY RUBY

Handsomer Gray To Honolulu sailed one Harry's family Was just as worried as could day He was to come back right away But when he saw the peaches be His father sailed to Waikiki He said I'm gonna get him on the beaches down at Waikiki He wrote his friends across the I'll not let him stay another day Just then a Hula passed his sea If you're sad and lonely here's the only place on earth to be.

way The moment that he saw her He fell for her then they heard him say.
Chorus.

When those sweet Hawaiian babies roll their eyes Up to the skies

I'm here to bet you they'll get you For they surely do know how to hypnotize

They've got a way about them I just idolize I've met the Senoritas and Mambelles from Paris and Madrid But they never made me do the things those Hula maidens did If you see them once or twice you'll think you're in Paradise When those sweet Hawaiian babies roll their eyes

When Those Sweet 2