Honey did you see that bill,
Come and see the big parade, Pasted there on Jazzy music

Yonder hill?
Kindly pay attention, To will be played,
Just before we're seated, I'll what the letters mention, 'Twill give you a wonderful see that you are treated, To peanuts and red lemon-thrill; Chase away those weary blues, ad; Barnum had the right idea,

Ain't you heard the happy news?
Come and give him one big cheer.

Circus is coming to town,

Two dozen acrobats from o'er the foam,

And Salome—Hip-hip-hippodrome; Come see the comical clown, Turning himself upside Come and purchase a photograph.

Of the freaks, and the big giraffe,

Open your dining room and start to laugh,

The circus is coming to town.
