The Dancing-Lesson

Dolores and the Girls

Lyrics by
Catherine Chisholm Cushing

Music by
Rudolf Friml

Animato

Oh, won't you, darling, tea with me?

My one best bet has gone to sea.

Copyright, 1918, by G. Schirmer
Oh, my love! please tell me, what did he say?

Oh, my dear! she's sixty if she's a day!

I hated to give back the ring!

Whoever told her she could sing?
But her hair, I tell you, is not her own!

Look at that ton of fat! She said that? Oh, the CAT!!

Quasi Gavotte

One! two! three! four! Arabesque so!

Grace-fully go: now all try! Brisk pirouette, Then quaint minu-et, Then reversez and fly!

Arms so, Point toe, Merrily twirl,

a tempo

Airily swirl! Now brightly, Step so lightly—

With playful glance, As you dance, dance, dance!

dance!