"Ever by your side"

Lyrics by Harold Atteridge

Music by Sigmund Romberg

Allegro moderato

With you near, what e'er the dangers are, Nothing will our love ef-face,

Love sweet love, will be our guiding-star,

Copyright, 1918, by G. Schirmer

Shawnee Plane & Music Co.
St. Louis, U. S. A.
Even in the strangest place; Though it be the far eternity, When the course of life is through,

If, dear heart, there is a need for me, I will always come to you. So ever

Chorus
Allegro moderato
by your side, Whatever may be-tide, Through life to-gather, as the Fates decide, together hand in hand, whatever clime or land, and ever guided, by love's command, Love my devotion, eternal as the sea, And my hope will be ever but of thee, In sweet con-evry, though the sands of time may slide, Ev-er, dear heart, by your

1. side! so ev - er side!

28240