If I Could Peep Thru The Window To-Night

Moderato

In the gloamin' he is dreamin'; While the big red moon is beamin'; Just a soldier.

There beside his dear old mother He can picture just one other Just the sweetest, boy who's played his part girl he ever knew Some where o'er the foam, Tonight he thinks of home, Here's the one and only longing in his heart.

is a brighter day Just one day when dreams will all come true.

CHORUS

If I could peep thru the window to-night And see all the

Copyright MCMXVIII by McCarty & Fisher Inc 148W 45th St. New York

International Copyright secured All Rights reserved folks back home, The sweetest old lady, The best in the world, The kindest hearted daddy, And my little girl. To hear them say the Rosary, And know each pearl's a prayer for me, I'd give the world for that wonderful sight. Just to peep thru the window tonight.