EGBERT VAN ALSTYNE

Moderato

Mar - y had a lit - tle song she sang it sweet and low
And
Mar - y sang this lit - tle song a long long time a - go She

molto sostenuto

ev'ry where that Mar - y went that song was sure to go Now
sings it yet each chance she gets to ev'ry bash - ful beau
But

Mar - y's one am - bi - tion was to be a bride you see
And
beaux are scarce since all the boys have saild a - cross the foam

WHEAT—THE GOLDEN GRAINS OF VICTORY. SONG so to ev'ry boy who call’d she’d sing so tenderly fear she’ll have to sing it next in some Old Soldier’s Home

CHORUS

Put your loving arms a-round me Steal a little kiss or two

Tell me that you’re glad you found me dear for I’m so glad that I found you (I’d like to hug and tease you) An-y day you say will please me An-y lit-tle church will do For I must be lov’d by some-one And it might as well be you — D.C.
