Land Of Romance

Lyric by
R. H. BURNSIDE and
JOHN L. GOLDEN

Music by
WM. M. DALY

Moderato

I know a place you've never heard about,
Come there tonight, it's not very far to go,

I know a place you've never heard a word about
Dear, it's so near, we needn't take a car to go,

But it's a place you ought to see And I'm sure you'll agree it's Right at home in a little nook,
By the lamp, if you look waits a

Copyright MCMXVIII by R. H. Burnside & John L. Golden
All Rights Reserved International Copyright Secured well worth visit-ing, True lov-ing cou-ple-s are wel-come there For they maid so beau-ti-ful, Wel-come to "Lamp-land" she soft-ly sighs, And you're fall in love at a glance So beau-ti-ful, fair, There's no hyp-no-tized in a trance, The dazz-ling light Shows a spot can com-pare With the won-der-ful land of Ro-man-cé. fu-ture so bright In that won-der-ful land of Ro-man-cé.

Refrain

Come, love, to the land of Ro-man-cé
Where we can wonder
Thru gardens fair
Where perfume fills the air from flowers sweet and rare
Where all is pleasure and happiness
Our lives one long caress Come love to the land of Romance  Where all is sunshine as you shall see, Ah!  There I'll make love to you—
As all true lovers do  Come, love, Ah, come with me.

Nec — Land Of Romance