There'll Be A Hot Time For The Old Men
(While The Young Men Are Away)

Words by
GRANT CLARKE
Writer of
"There's A Little Bit of Bad In Every Good Little Girl"

Music by
GEO. W. MEYER
Writer of "Me And My Gal"

Allegro moderato

All the girls are grieving Cause the boys are leaving
While the young men stayed here Gone to face the foe,

But the men of fifty, they feel mighty nifty,
And the real old fellow Never was as mellow

Young men they are sailing every day Who will love the girls while they're away?
It's not very hard to figure them All the old men think they're young again.
CHORDS

There'll be a hot time for the old men While the young men are away When the young men go to France, Oh, won't the old men have a wonderful chance, To raise the dickens with all the chickens They'll have every thing their way.

Now that the young men have all disappeared All the old men read the papers and laughed When all the young men were caught in the draft, There'll be a hot time for the old men While the young men are away There'll be a way.