Thumbs Up! Thumbs Down!

Lyric by BALLARD MACDONALD

Tempo di marcia

Music by HARRY PIANI

"Behold in me a hero, out of Roman history."
"To sacrifice a Christian gave me unalloyed delight."

("Nero"

"Yes! Nero, You all remember me, An Christian?"
"Or Jewish, I revelled in the sight."

Copyright MCMXVIII by Shapiro, Bernstein & Co. Inc. 224 West 47th Street, New York
International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved
emperor proud and haughty, all historians agree, "So feed a thin and flat one, till he looked to be just right!"

And haughty, "And haughty As ever I could be, A

that one?" "The fat one I'd let the lions bite The monarch of nimble wit, and whenever I saw fit, I'd Co-lisseum was a spot I built up on a vacant lot. And practise little harm less pranks and jests, Oft.

Where
every week a circus there I'd give, times I'd give a banquet grand, invite the nobles of the land And gladiators in a bout Would tear each other's vitals out And after dinner murder all my guests:"

when they suffered much I'd let them live:"
ruined Rome, And put the Hip in Hip-po-drome,"Hail! to mighty self with gin Then rug it on my vi-o-lin" "Hail! to mighty

Ne-ro: A rul-er of re-nown!" "An-y lit-tle girl would Ne-ro: A rul-er of re-nown!" "An-y time I'll see a do for me!" "And Mrs. Ne-ro she could be!" "Un-less we chanced to blush-ing bride" "Held her from her hus-band's side!" "And if to in-ter-dis-agrees! "Thumbs up!" "Thumbs down!" "Thumbs up!" "Thumbs down!" "Thumbs up!" "Thumbs down!"

Thumbs Up! etc. 4