Three Wonderful Letters From Home

Words by
JOE GOODWIN and
BALLARD MACDONALD

Music by
JAMES F. HANLEY

Moderato

Piano

Three letters left a village bound for somewhere over there,
Each word was like a soft caress that soothed his aching heart,

And

Three letters to a lonesome soldier lad
Each one a loving story told,

Then joy returned to take their place, And Drove away the misery and the pain

And

One was worth its weight in gold

Three messages that made his poor heart glad:

Brought a vision of each face

As over and over he read their words again:

Refrain Slowly

For the first was just old fashioned, And it breathed a mother's prayer

While the next one started "Darling, God protect you over there?" And the third was filled with kisses, Sent to

Daddy across the foam, From his mother, wife and baby, Three wonderful letters from home. For the home.
