Under a Blazing Star

Words by MILDRED SEITZ

Music by H. T. BURLEIGH

Andante maestoso

Blow, wind, blow,

From the mountains or the sea;

And

* A star shell

Copyright MCMXVIII by G. Ricordi & Co., Inc.

116508-4 All rights of execution, reproduction, translation and transcription are strictly reserved ban-ish the mist that veils my eyes, _ Send back my dreams to me! Blow, wind, blow!

Sing, wind, sing, Till I on-ly hear your song; And never a sound of battle roar

Through the night so long, so long.

Sing, wind, sing!
Blow, wind, blow.
And

Bear my kisses far; To a lad who is sleeping

Deep and still Under a blazing star.