Marcia moderato

Every Yankee who's a Yankee is so proud of it,
And you must admit,
Every Yankee who's a Yankee sticks right to the end,
And when he's a man, he always does his bit.

Smith or Jones, or Brown or Cohen or Doyle may be his friend,
On him you can depend.

He's right there to do his share for those who are in need,
It makes him feel so happy when he's done a noble deed,
You'll recognize a friend to every man.

He's glad to help him anytime he can,
His spirit seems to dominate the air.
