From the Halls of Montezuma
Our flags unfurled to Here's health to you and Every breeze from dawn to setting sun;

We have to our Corps which we are proud to serve;

many a strife we've fought for life And land as on the sea, First to we could take a gun;

never lost our nerve, In the fight for right and freedom And to snow of far off Northern lands And in Army and the Navy Ever

keep our honor clean;
look on Heven's scenes;
