Barney Carney promised he'd be true to Molly O, The Barney wrote a letter home the day the war was through, He day he went away to war about a year ago; In ev'ry note that start-ed off with 'Molly, dear, I'm coming home to you;' He did not say what

Barney wrote he called her 'Mackerie,' She read the name and said with shame, 'this week or day, nor did he say what year, And Molly O, said, 'wurra-woe it's is not meant for me.' All the neighbors noticed there were tear-drops in her all a joke I fear.' People said he had to wait un-till the ships come eye: And when they asked her how was Barney, she'd begin to cry:

back; And Molly said, "why wait for them, why don't he take a hack?"

Chorus

"My Barney lies over the ocean, My Barney lies over the sea;
Sure he said he went to war to help the women, And I think he's helped himself to two or three;
Now he's got a little girl in Belgium, and one in Paris, And I know the little things he tells 'em, when they're on his knee, Sure my Barney lies over the ocean, Just the way he lied to me!" "My me!"
