Moderato

Piano

On the day you sailed a-way from your little girl

You whispered words in her ear words of devotion and cheer

One small tear-drop in her eyes Told her love for you

Dont let her ever sigh like poor little Butterfly, But keep those last words true.
Refrain

Somewhere in America she's waiting for you Waiting to see the smile, that tells her that all the while you've been away You've loved her She is your guardian angel watching Every thing you do
And every night she says her prayer for you,
Don't forget how much she really cares for you.
Somewhere in America she's waiting for you.
