There's Everything Waiting For You

Words by WILL HOUGH

Music by BYRON GAY

Moderato

(DUKE)

Piano

Don't you think this is a lovely little spot for a honey-moon time? I would like to interest you in a house for two.

If I were inclined to marry This is where I'd come in Spring, Each house seems to be complete except one thing! Don't you think 'twould be a more attractive plan, If you also would provide a perfect man?

5836-4 There's Everything etc.
Refrain

There's a love moon over the hill-top, There's a honey-suckle vine; A night-gale that seems to know, just how to sing: "I love you so." There's someone feeling so lonely, There's a lot of kisses too, There's everything just waiting, waiting, wonderful boy, for you! There's a you!

5836-4 There's Everything etc.