Bill and Coo

Words by GEORGE V. HOBART

Music by
IVAN CARYLL

Allegretto

(EMILE)

Have you got a little loving In your
When you speak of turtle doving Please ex-

(TASHI)

loving little heart Have you got a little love for plain just what you mean I can readily explain to Copyright 1920 by Chappell & Co., Ltd.

All rights reserved
(EMILE)

me?
you
Will you do some tur-tle do-v- ing. If I play a lov-ing part? If you are a tur-tle dove let's

(TASHI)

I've nev- er been. Oh! it's such an eas-y thing to see! I shall can run to you a-coo-ing. But you do! Shall I sigh, your heart be-guil-ing. Shall I must not run a-way. I must take a lit-tle step or coy-ly droop my eyes. Sigh-ing is a fetch-ing thing to (EMILE)

(EMILE)

(TASHI)

two!
do
Yes, but when I come a-woo-ing you must
I can smile and keep on smil-ing If that

(TASHI)
hear just what I say When I learn the way to bill and coo.
meth-od you ad-vice If you do I take a smile from you.
When a dove is deep in love Nearly all that he can do Is bill and coo and coo! He will strut a-bout and say In his own pe-cul-i-iar way "Oh coo and coo and coo!" Now if marry me you will You shall see how well I fill The bill and bill and bill! But if you'll be fond and true I'll pay all the bills and you can

1st Ending

2nd Ending

coo and coo and coo.
coo and coo and coo.