LIVE FOR ALL YOU'RE WORTH

SONG

Lyric by
ARTHUR WIPPERIS

Music by
HERMAN DAREWSKI

Moderato

VOICE

Piano

Listen here,

Never mind,

People if you
dear,

find,

Tho' this world is rather trying,

That you count your wealth per penny,

Propiedad para la Republica Mexicana de Jerome H. Remick & Co., New York & Detroit,

Performing rights reserved
Life is short, be a sport,
While the day by day,
And they'll

Precious hours are flying! Wear a smile,
Grow to dollars many, Show your pluck!

All the while, Make a bluff, that's the back your luck! Don't be done, 'til you've Stuff! What's the use of worrying,

In your lexicon of life

Live for all you're worth!
Make the best of what you've got.
Cross the word called failure out.

CHORUS

Live for all you're worth While you are on this earth, For when tomorrow comes Ah!

who can tell? Although it may be heav'n It may be quite an-other clima-te! Ev-ry-bod-y knows How

fortune comes and goes,
So you make hay

while the sun shines,
And then you don't care if it

1. snows!
2. snows!

D.C.

Live for all you're worth-4