wild - wood. A girl and boy, spoon - ing. To love's all right both filled with in pale moon - joy.

Breathe

Per - fect time for childhood, He sings again a sweet refrain, Oh! crooning This pretty air will please her there, Oh!

CHORUS

Let's plant the seed, dear, of love's bouquet, In some old gar- den, not far away, Where like the coo-ing dove we'll whisper tales of love And oh, such dreams in the pale moon-

-beams.       By day the sunshine with friendly glow,

Will kiss each blossom to make it blow, And then I'll tie those flowers of every hue into one bunch and give them to you, When we plant the seeds of Love's Bouquet. Let's plant the Bouquet.  D.S.
