That Naughty Waltz

Lyric by (Take me in your arms again and waltz, and waltz, and waltz)

EDWIN STANLEY

Moderate Waltz Tempo

Hold me tightly, To be ever

Gradually slower

swing me lightly, To that naughty waltz

thus together is my fondest dream

So entrancing; seems like dancing

Skies are brightened, sorrows lightened

In the moonlight on a June night; How it thrills me!
While they're playing and we're swaying; But the gladness turns to sadness When the music charms!

You know, dearest, Heavens's halts; So, my dearie, let's be nearest When I'm in your arms.
Cheery While they play that waltz.
